

Gord, Jane, & kids, Tim & Kim

Jane Booker's siblings and parents

Jane & daughter Kim

Janet Copland's mom

Joan Behm's mom taught her how to be a Fun Grama as well as all her knitting and sewing skills.

This is her smocking the dress Jennifer is wearing in the picture beside. I am truly Grateful for her passing on all these precious skills to me.

Lynn McGregor's mum (on the left)

Lynn as a little girl

Sue Hicks' mother Ethel Sharp

Susan and John Brenciaglia visiting with their Syrian, now Canadian, friends and their two Canadian-born girls, Jody and Sedra

Daughter Christine celebrating with her 3 girls, Julia, Jenny, Katie

Susan and John sharing a dinner in April in Milan with their Italian family.

Suzy Simson's mum and dad

Portrait from about 1966, Shane is the cute guy in center of the photo.

Shane Baker's Mom is a remarkable woman and still going strong, she will be 98 in June. If I look for words to describe her, they would include selfless, loving, supportive, generous, intelligent with a great sense of humor. When I describe her in these terms it's a reflection of how she interacts and takes an interest not just in the lives of her children and their spouses, but also the lives of her 12 grandchildren and their partners as well as her 10 great grandchildren! She is involved in all our lives and is dearly loved by all 40 of us! She still owns a home and a car, but has chosen to live in a retirement home to stay busy as she has outlived most of her friends. My sibs and I zoom with her Sunday mornings and it has been a wonderful way to stay connected through covid.

-